The primary colors of Maker Faire were selected both because of their punch and impact, as well as because they are hues that reproduce easily and consistently.

A 15% tint of the primary cyan color can be used as a background color. Note that background color should not enter inside the logo. (See Logo Usage, page 6.)